Lesvos Solidarity is seeking a compassionate and dedicated Psychologist to join our Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS) team. The successful candidate will play a key role in designing, implementing, and delivering mental health services to both local and refugee communities, promoting emotional well-being, resilience, and social integration.

Key Responsibilities

- Service Delivery: Provide individual, family, and group psychological support and counselling sessions to improve the mental health and psychosocial well-being of beneficiaries.
- Project Design & Implementation: Actively contribute to the design and implementation of the MHPSS project, ensuring interventions are evidence-based and culturally appropriate.
- Case Management: Collaborate with colleagues to develop and implement case management plans tailored to each beneficiary's needs.
- Crisis Response: Respond promptly and appropriately to mental health emergencies.
- Community Activities: Plan, monitor, and facilitate educational, recreational, and integration activities in collaboration with team members (e.g., social workers, educational facilitators).

- Data & Reporting: Collect, analyze, and monitor data on mental health activities; produce regular (weekly/monthly) reports.
- Ethical Practice: Maintain strict confidentiality and ensure all ethical standards are upheld in line with professional guidelines.
- Team Collaboration: Participate in regular case discussions with social workers, supervisors, and coordinators to ensure holistic support for beneficiaries.
- Representation: Represent the MHPSS department in relevant coordination or working groups (e.g., Protection, MHPSS).
- Adaptability: Support other project-related tasks as required, demonstrating flexibility and commitment to the evolving needs of the program.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in psychology (master's degree preferred).
- Experience working with migrant or refugee populations.
- Experience working with interpreters (preferred).
- Good spoken and written English; knowledge of Greek is required; other languages is an asset.
